  19. Disguising one's self to obstruct officer.
  20. Concealing and compounding offences.
  21. Officers taking reward for omitting duty.

Perjury, how punished.

SEC. 1. Every person being lawfully required to depose the truth in any proceedings in a court of justice, who shall commit perjury, shall be liable, if such perjury were committed on the trial of an indictment for a capital crime, to imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than fifteen nor less than three years, and if committed in any other case, to imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than ten nor less than two years.

What deemed perjury.

SEC. 2. If any person, of whom an oath shall be required by law, shall wilfully swear falsely in regard to any matter or thing respecting which such oath is required, such person shall be deemed guilty of perjury. CHAPTER 6.

Subornation of perjury.

SEC. 3. Every person who shall be guilty of subornation of perjury, by procuring another person to commit the crime of perjury as aforesaid, shall be punished in the same manner as for the crime of perjury.

SEC. 4. If any person shall endeavor to procure or incite any other person to commit the crime of perjury, though no perjury be committed, upon conviction, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than three years, nor less than one year.

Inciting to commit perjury.

SEC. 5. Whenever it shall appear to any court of record, that any witness or party, who has been legally sworn and examined, or has made an affidavit in any proceedings in a court of justice, has testified in such a manner as to induce a reasonable presumption that he has been guilty of perjury therein, the court may take a recognizance with sureties, for his appearing to answer to an indictment for perjury, and thereupon the witnesses to establish such perjury, may be bound over to the proper court, and notice of the proceedings shall forthwith be given to the district attorney.

Proceedings when perjury suspected by court.

SEC. 6. If in any proceeding in a court of justice in which perjury shall be reasonably presumed as aforesaid, any papers, books or documents shall have been produced, which shall be deemed necessary to be used in any prosecution for such perjury, the court may order a certified copy of such books, papers or documents, to be taken, to be used in such prosecution, in the same manner as the original might have been.

Copies of papers, &c., may be taken.

SEC. 7. Every person who shall corruptly give, offer or promise to any executive, judicial or legislative officer, after his election or appointment, and either before or after he shall have been qualified, or shall have taken his seat, any gift or gratuity whatever, with intent to influence his act, vote, opinion, decision, or judgment in any matter, question, cause or proceeding, which may then be pending, or may by law, come or be brought before him in his official capacity, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than three years, nor less than one year, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand, nor less than one hundred dollars.

Bribing officers.

SEC. 8. Every executive, legislative or judicial officer, who shall corruptly accept any gift or gratuity, or any promise to make any gift, or do any act beneficial to such officer, under an agreement or with an understanding that his vote, opinion or judgment, shall be given in any particular manner, or upon a particular side of any question, cause or proceeding, which is, or may be by law brought before him in his official capacity, or that in such capacity he shall make any particular nomination or appointment, shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than four, nor less than two years, or by fine not exceeding one thousand, nor less than one hundred dollars.

Accepting bribes.

SEC. 9. Every person who shall corrupt, or attempt to corrupt any court, commissioner, juror, arbitrator, umpire or referee, by giving, offering, or promising any gift or gratuity whatever, with intent to bias his opinion, or influence the decision of such court,

Corrupting jurors, &c.

CHAPTER 6. commissioner, juror, arbitrator, umpire or referee, in relation to any cause or matter which may be pending in the court, or before an inquest, or for the decision of which such arbitrator, umpire or referee shall have been appointed, shall be punished, upon conviction, by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than three years, nor less than one year, or by a fine not exceeding one thousand, nor less than one hundred dollars.

Jurors, &c. accepting bribes.

SEC. 10. If any person summoned as a juror, or chosen or appointed as an arbitrator, umpire or referee, or if any court or commissioner, shall corruptly take any thing to give his verdict, award or report, or shall corruptly receive any gift or gratuity whatever, from a party to any suit, cause, or proceeding, for the trial or decision of which such juror shall have been summoned, or for the hearing or determining of which, such court, commissioner, arbitrator, umpire or referee shall have been chosen or appointed, he shall, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than three years, nor less than one year, or by a fine of not more than one thousand, nor less than one hundred dollars.

Aiding escapes from prison.

SEC. 11. Every person who shall convey into any penitentiary, jail, house of correction, house of reformation, or other like place of confinement, any disguise, or any instrument, tool, weapon, or other thing, adapted or useful in aiding any prisoner to make his escape, with intent to facilitate the escape of any prisoner there lawfully committed or detained, or shall, by any means whatever, aid or assist any such prisoner, in his endeavor to escape therefrom, whether such escape be attempted or effected or not; and every person who shall forcibly rescue any prisoner held in custody, upon any conviction or charge of an offence, shall be liable to punishment by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not more than four nor less than two years; or if the person, whose escape or rescue was effected or intended, was charged with an offence not capital, nor punishable by imprisonment in the penitentiary, the punishment for the offence mentioned in this section, shall be by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine of not more than five hundred, nor less than one hundred dollars.

Aiding to escape from officer.

SEC. 12. Every person who shall aid or assist any prisoner in escaping, or in attempting to escape from any officer or person who shall have the lawful custody of such prisoner, shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than four, nor less than two years, or by a fine not exceeding five thousand, nor less than one hundred dollars.

escape.

SEC. 13. If any jailor or other officer shall voluntarily suffer any prisoner in his custody, charged with or convicted of any criminal offence to escape, he shall suffer, unless the prisoner were charged with or convicted of a capital offence, the like punishment and penalties, as the prisoner so suffered to escape, was sentenced to, or would be liable to suffer, upon conviction for the crime or offence wherewith he stood charged; and if the prisoner were charged with or convicted of a capital offence, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than twenty nor less than five years.

Suffering negligent es-

SEC. 14. If any jailor or other officer shall, through negligence, suffer any prisoner in his custody, upon conviction, or upon any criminal charge to escape, or shall wilfully refuse to receive into his custody any prisoner lawfully committed thereto, on any criminal charge or conviction, or on any lawful process whatever, he shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than two years, or by a fine of not more than five hundred, nor less than one hundred dollars.

cape and refusing to receive prisoner.

SEC. 15. If any officer authorized to serve process, shall wilfully and corruptly refuse to execute any lawful process to him directed, and requiring him to apprehend or confine any person charged with or convicted of an offence, or shall wilfully and corruptly omit or delay to execute such process, whereby such person shall escape and go at large, he shall be punished on conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding three hundred, nor less than fifty dollars.

Refusing to serve process.

SEC. 16. If any person, being required in the name of the United States, or of the Territory of Oregon, by any marshal or deputy marshal, sheriff or deputy sheriff, coroner, or constable, shall neglect or refuse to assist them in the execution of their office, in any criminal case, or in the preservation of the peace, or the apprehending or securing of any person for a breach of the peace, or in any case of escape or rescue of persons arrested on civil process, he shall upon conviction, be punished by fine, not exceeding five hundred, nor less than twenty-five dollars.

Refusing to aid officer.

SEC. 17. If any justice of the peace, upon view of any breach of the peace, or any other offence proper for his cognizance, shall require any person to apprehend and bring before him the offender, every person so required, who shall refuse or neglect to obey such justice, shall, on conviction, be punished in the same manner as is provided in the next preceding section, for refusing assistance to a sheriff; and no person to whom such justice shall be known or shall declare himself to be a justice of the peace, shall be permitted to plead any excuse, or pretence of ignorance of his office.

Refusing to aid justice.

SEC. 18. If any person shall falsely assume to be a justice of the peace, sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner or constable, and shall take on himself to act as such, and require any person to aid or assist him in any matter pertaining to the duty of a justice of the peace, sheriff, deputy sheriff, coroner or constable, he shall on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding two hundred, nor less than fifty dollars.

Falsely assuming to be justice or other officer.

SEC. 19. Every person who shall in any manner disguise himself, with intent to obstruct the due execution of the law, or with intent to intimidate, hinder, or interrupt any officer, or any other person in the legal performance of his duty, or the exercise of his rights under the laws of the United States, or of this territory, whether such intent shall be effected or not, shall be punished, on conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding three hundred, nor less than fifty dollars.

Disguising one's self to obstruct officer.

fences, &c.

CHAPTER 7. or implied, to compound or conceal such offence, or not to prosecute therefor, or not give evidence thereof, he shall, where such offence was punishable with death, upon conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not more than two years, nor less than six months; and where the offence was punishable in any other manner, he shall be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than six, nor less than three months, or by fine not exceeding two hundred, nor less than fifty dollars.

Officers receiving reward to neglect duty.

SEC. 21. If any sheriff, constable or other officer, authorized to serve legal process, shall receive from a defendant, or any other person, any money or other valuable thing, as a consideration, reward, or inducement for delaying or omitting to arrest any defendant, or to carry him before a magistrate, or for delaying to take any person to prison, or for postponing the sale of any property under an execution, or for omitting or delaying to perform any duty pertaining to his office, he shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, nor less than three months, or by fine not exceeding five hundred, nor less than fifty dollars.

CHAPTER VII.

OFFENCES AGAINST PUBLIC PEACE.

- SEC. 1. Unlawful assemblage, how suppressed.
 2. Refusing to assist officer when required.
 3. Neglect of officer how punished.
 4. Duties of officers when rioters refuse to disperse.
 5. Armed force when called out to obey certain civil officers.
 6. When officer to be considered guiltless if death ensues.
 7. Riotously destroying house, &c.

Unlawful assemblages how suppressed.

SEC. 1. If any persons to the number of three or more, whether armed or not, shall be unlawfully, riotously or tumultuously assembled in any city, town, or county, it shall be the duty of the mayor and each of the aldermen and councilmen of such city, and of every justice of the peace, living in such city or town, and of the sheriff of the county, and his deputies, and also of every constable and coroner, living in such city or town, to go among the persons so assembled, or as near them as may be with safety, and in the name of the Territory of Oregon, to command all the persons so assembled, immediately and peaceably to disperse; and if the persons so assembled shall not thereupon immediately and peaceably disperse, it shall be the duty of each of the magistrates and officers to command the assistance of all persons there present, in seizing, arresting and securing in custody, the persons so unlawfully assembled, so that they may be proceeded with according to law.

Refusing to assist when required.

SEC. 2. If any person present, being commanded by any of the magistrates or officers mentioned in the preceding section, to aid and assist in seizing and securing such rioters, or persons unlawfully assembled, or in suppressing such riot, or unlawful assembly, shall refuse or neglect to obey such command, he shall be deemed to be one of the rioters, or persons unlawfully assembled, and shall be liable to be prosecuted therefor, and punished accordingly.

SEC. 3. If any mayor, councilman, justice of the peace, sheriff, deputy sheriff, constable or coroner, having notice of such riotous, or tumultuous and unlawful assembly, as is mentioned in this chapter, in the city, town or county in which he lives, shall neglect or refuse immediately to proceed to the place of such assembly, or as near thereto as he can with safety, or shall omit or neglect to exercise the authority with which he is invested by this chapter, for suppressing such riotous or unlawful assembly, and for arresting and securing the offenders, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and be punished by a fine not exceeding five hundred dollars.

CHAPTER 7. Neglect of officer, how punished.

SEC. 4. If any persons who shall be so riotously and unlawfully assembled, and who shall have been commanded to disperse as before provided, shall refuse or neglect to disperse without unnecessary delay, any two of the officers or magistrates before mentioned, may require the aid of a sufficient number of persons, in arms or otherwise as may be necessary, and shall proceed in such manner as in their judgment shall be deemed expedient, forthwith to disperse and suppress such unlawful, riotous or tumultuous assembly, and seize and secure the persons composing the same, so that they may be proceeded with according to law.

Duty of officers when rioters refuse to disperse.

SEC. 5. Whenever an armed force shall be called out, for the purpose of suppressing any tumult or riot, or dispersing any body of men, acting together by force, with intent to commit any felony, or to offer violence to persons or property, or with intent by force or violence to resist or oppose the execution of the laws of this territory, such armed force, when they shall arrive at the place of such unlawful, riotous or tumultuous assembly, shall obey such orders for suppressing the riot or tumult, and for dispersing and arresting all the persons who are committing any of the said offences, as they may have received from the governor, or from any judge of a court of record, or the sheriff of the county; and also such further orders as they there shall receive from any two of the magistrates or officers mentioned in the first section.

Armed force when called out to obey certain civil officers.

SEC. 6. If by reason of any of the efforts made by any of the said magistrates or officers, or by their direction to disperse such unlawful, riotous or tumultuous assembly, or to seize and secure the persons composing the same, who have refused to disperse, though the number remaining may be less than twelve, any such person or other persons then present as spectators or otherwise, shall be killed or wounded, the said magistrates and officers, and all persons acting by their order, or under their direction, shall be held guiltless and fully justified in law; and if any of the said magistrates or officers, or any person acting by their order or under their direction, shall be killed or wounded, all the persons so unlawfully, riotously, and tumultuously assembled, shall be held answerable therefor.

Officers when guiltless if death ensues.

SEC. 7. If any of the persons so unlawfully assembled, shall demolish, pull down or destroy, or begin to demolish, pull down or destroy any dwelling-house, or any other building, or any ship, steamboat or vessel, or do any other unlawful act, he shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not more than three years, or in the county jail, not exceeding one year, or by fine, not exceeding one thousand dollars.

Riotously destroying house, &c.

SEC. 12. Every person who shall commit sodomy, or the crime against nature, either with mankind or any beast, shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than five years nor less than one year.

SEC. 13. If any person, not being lawfully authorized, shall wilfully dig up, disinter, remove or convey away any human body, or the remains thereof, or shall knowingly aid in such disinterment, removal or conveying away, every such offender and every accessory thereto, either before or after the fact, shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary not more than two years, nor less than six months, or by fine not exceeding one thousand, nor less than fifty dollars.

SEC. 14. If any person shall wilfully or with evil intent, destroy, mutilate, deface or remove any tomb, monument, grave-stone or other structure, or thing placed, designed for a memorial of the dead, or any fence, railing, curb, or other thing intended for the protection or for the ornament of any tomb, monument, grave-stone or other structure before mentioned, or of any inclosure for the burial of the dead, or shall wilfully and with evil intent, destroy, mutilate, remove, cut, break or injure any tree, shrub or plant, placed or being within any such inclosure, the person so offending, shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one thousand, nor less than twenty-five dollars.

SEC. 15. If any person shall open or make any highway or town-way, or shall construct any railroad, turnpike, canal, or any other thing in the nature of a public easement, over, in, through, or upon such part of any inclosure, being the property of a town, village, or religious society, or of private proprietors, as may be used for the burial of the dead, unless an authority for that purpose shall have been specially granted by law, or unless the consent of such town, village, religious society, or private proprietors respectively, shall have first been obtained, he shall be liable to punishment by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, nor less than six months, or by fine not more than five hundred, nor less than one hundred dollars.

SEC. 16. Every person who shall cruelly beat or torture any Cruelty to animals.

CHAP. 19. horse, ox or other animal, whether belonging to himself or another, shall be liable to punishment by imprisonment in the county jail, not more than thirty nor less than ten days, or by fine not exceeding fifty, nor less than five dollars.

Disturbing religious meetings. SEC. 17. Every person, who, on the Lord's day, or at any other time, shall wilfully interrupt or disturb any assembly of people, met for the worship of God, within the place of such meeting, or out of it, shall be liable to fine not exceeding fifty, nor less than five dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not exceeding thirty days.

Civil process not to be executed on Sunday. SEC. 18. No person shall serve or execute any civil process from the midnight preceding to the midnight following the Lord's day, but such service shall be void, and the person serving or executing such process, shall be liable in damages to the party aggrieved, in like manner as if he had not had any such process.

Jurisdiction of justice. SEC. 19. Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction of the offences mentioned in the seventeenth and eighteenth sections of this chapter.

CHAPTER XII.

OFFENCES AGAINST THE PUBLIC HEALTH.

- SEC. 1. Punishment for selling unwholesome food.
 2. For adulterating food, liquors, &c.
 3. For adulterating medicines and drugs.
 4. For inoculating with small pox.
 5. For selling poisons without labels.

Selling unwholesome provisions, &c. SEC. 1. If any person shall, knowingly, sell any kind of diseased, corrupted, or unwholesome provisions, whether for meat or drink, without making the same fully known to the buyer, he shall be punished, on conviction, by imprisonment in the county jail, not more than one year, nor less than three months, or by fine, not exceeding five hundred, nor less than ten dollars.

Adulterating food or liquors. SEC. 2. If any person shall fraudulently adulterate, for the purpose of sale, any substance intended for food, or any wine, spirits, malt liquors, or other liquor intended for drinking, with any substance injurious to health, he shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, nor less than three months, or by fine not exceeding one thousand, nor less than fifty dollars, and the articles so adulterated shall be forfeited and destroyed.

Adulterating medicine. SEC. 3. If any person shall fraudulently adulterate, for the purpose of sale, any drug or medicine, or knowingly offer any adulterated drug or medicine for sale, in such a manner as to render the same injurious to health, he shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the county jail not more than one year, nor less than three months, or by fine not exceeding five hundred, nor less than fifty dollars, and such adulterated drugs and medicines shall be forfeited and destroyed.

Inoculating with small-pox. SEC. 4. If any person shall inoculate himself, or any other person, or shall suffer himself to be inoculated with the small pox, within this territory, with intent to cause the prevalence or spread of this infectious disease, he shall, on conviction, be punished by imprisonment in the penitentiary, not more than three years, nor less than one year.

SEC. 5. Every apothecary, druggist, or other person, who shall sell and deliver any arsenic, corrosive sublimate, prussic acid, or any other active poison, without having the word "poison," and the true name thereof, in English, written or printed upon a label attached to the vial, box or parcel containing the same, shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding one hundred, nor less than ten dollars.

CHAP. 18. Selling poison without label.

CHAPTER XIII.

GENERAL PROVISIONS CONCERNING CRIMES AND PUNISHMENTS.

- SEC. 1. Punishment for being accessory to felony before the fact.
 2. For procuring felony to be committed.
 3. Trial of accessory.
 4. Punishment for assisting principal or accessory to escape.
 5. Accessory may be convicted before principal.
 6. Offences, near boundary lines, how alleged in indictment.
 7. Offence where prosecuted, when wound is given in one county and death occurs in another.
 8. Ib. When wounds, &c., are given out of territory and death occurs in territory.
 9. Allegation in indictment for embezzling.
 10. Certain fines appropriated for schools.
 11. Benefit of clergy, wager of battle, petty treason, abolished.

SEC. 1. Every person who shall be aiding in the commission of any offence, which shall be a felony, or who shall be accessory thereto before the fact, by counselling, hiring or otherwise procuring such felony to be committed, shall, on conviction, be punished in the same manner as is or shall be prescribed for the punishment of the principal felon.

SEC. 2. Every person who shall counsel, hire, or otherwise procure any offence to be committed, which shall be a felony, may be indicted and convicted as an accessory before the fact, either with the principal felon, or after the conviction of the same.

SEC. 3. Any person guilty of the offence in the preceding sections may be indicted, tried and punished in the same court, and in the same county where the principal felon might be indicted and tried, although the offence of counselling, hiring, abetting, or procuring the commission of such felony, may have been committed either within or without the limits of this territory.

SEC. 4. Every person not standing in the relation of husband or wife, parent or grandparent, child or grandchild, brother or sister, by consanguinity or affinity to the offender, who, after the commission of any felony, shall harbor, conceal, maintain, or assist any principal felon or accessory before the fact, or shall give such offender any other aid, knowing that he has committed a felony, or has been accessory thereto before the fact, with intent that he shall avoid and escape from detection, arrest, trial or punishment, shall be deemed an accessory after the fact, and on conviction,

Aiding in felony.

Procuring felony.

Trial of accessory.

Assisting in escape of principal or accessory.

CHAP. 18. shall be imprisoned in the county jail not more than one year, or by fine not exceeding two hundred dollars.

Trial of accessory.

SEC. 5. Every accessory either before or after the fact to any felony, by any statute made, or which shall hereafter be made, may be indicted, convicted and punished, whether the principal felon shall or shall not have been convicted previously, and either in the county where such person shall have become an accessory, or in the county where such principal felony shall have been committed.

Offences near boundary lines.

SEC. 6. Offences committed on the boundary lines of two counties, or within one hundred rods of the dividing line between them, may be alleged in the indictment, to have been committed in either of them, and may be prosecuted and punished in either county.

Wound in one county and death in another.

SEC. 7. If any mortal wound shall be given, or other violence or injury shall be inflicted, or any poison shall be administered in one county, by means whereof death shall ensue in another county, the offence may be prosecuted in either county.

Wound out of territory and death in territory.

SEC. 8. If any such mortal wound shall be inflicted, or other violence or injury done, or poison administered, either within or without the limits of this territory, by means whereof death shall ensue in any county thereof, such offence may be prosecuted and punished in the county where such death may happen.

Allegation for embezzling.

SEC. 9. In the prosecution of any offence committed upon, or in relation to, or in any way affecting any real estate, or any offence committed in stealing, embezzling, destroying, injuring or fraudulently receiving or concealing any money, goods or other personal estate, it shall be sufficient, and shall not be deemed a variance, if it be proven on trial that at the time when such offence was committed, either the actual or constructive possession, or the general or special property in the whole, or any part of such real or personal estate, was in the person or community alleged in the indictment, or other accusation, to be the owner thereof.

Certain fines appropriated to schools.

SEC. 10. When any fine shall have been imposed upon any person, upon conviction upon an indictment or presentment of a grand jury, or where such fine shall have been imposed by a justice of the peace, such fine, when the same shall be collected, shall in all cases be paid into the county treasury of the county where the conviction was had, and shall be appropriated for schools in the same manner as the yearly school fund collected in such county.

Benefit of clergy, battle, petit treason, &c., abolished.

SEC. 11. The plea of benefit of clergy, wager of battle, and the distinction between murder and petit treason, are abolished, and the last named offence shall be prosecuted and punished as murder in the second degree.

CHAPTER XIV.

SEARCH WARRANT, AND PROCEEDINGS THEREON.

- SEC. 1. Search warrants, when and by whom issued.
2. Magistrate, when to issue warrant.
3. Warrants, to whom issued and what to contain.
4. Property seized, how kept and disposed of.

SEC. 1. When complaint shall have been made on oath to any magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases, that personal property has been stolen or embezzled or obtained by false tokens or pretences, and that the complainant believes that it is concealed in any particular house or place, the magistrate, if he be satisfied that there is reasonable cause for such belief, shall issue his warrants to search for such property.

SEC. 2. Any such magistrate, when satisfied that there is reasonable cause, may also upon like complaint made on oath, issue search warrants in the following cases, to wit:

1. To search for and seize any counterfeit or spurious coin, forged bank notes, and other forged instruments or tools, machines or materials prepared or provided for making either of them;

2. To search for and seize any books, pamphlets, ballads, printed papers, or other things containing obscene language, or obscene prints, pictures, figures or descriptions, manifestly tending to corrupt the morals of youth, and intended to be sold, loaned, circulated, distributed or introduced into any family, school, or place of education;

3. To search for and seize any gaming apparatus or implements used or kept, and to be used in unlawful gaming in any gaming-house or in any building, apartment or place resorted to for the purpose of unlawful gaming.

SEC. 3. All such warrants shall be directed to the sheriff of the county, or his deputy, or to any constable of the county, commanding such officer to search the house or place where the stolen property, or other things for which he is required to search, are believed to be concealed, which place and property or things to be searched for, shall be designated and described in the warrant, and to bring such stolen property or other things, when found, and the person in whose possession the same shall be found, before the magistrate who issued the warrant, or before some other magistrate or court having cognizance of the case.

SEC. 4. When any officer in the execution of a search warrant, shall find any stolen or embezzled property, or shall seize any other things for which a search is allowed by this chapter, all the property and things so seized shall be safely kept by the direction of the court or magistrate, so long as shall be necessary for the purpose of being produced in evidence on any trial, and as soon as may be afterwards, all such stolen and embezzled property shall be restored to the owner thereof, and all other things seized by virtue of such warrant, shall be destroyed under direction of the court or magistrate.

CHAPTER XV.

DEMANDING FUGITIVES FROM JUSTICE.

- SEC. 1. Governor may appoint agents to demand fugitives from justice.
 2. Proceedings when such demand is made by executive of another state, &c.
 3. When and how magistrate to issue warrant; contents of warrant.
 4. Person charged to give recognizance; when to be committed; forfeiture of recognizance.
 5. When discharged; may be delivered up on warrant of executive.
 6. Complainant liable for costs, &c.

Governor
may appoint agents to demand fugitives.

SEC. 1. The governor of this territory may, in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, appoint agents to demand of the executive authority of any state or territory, any fugitive from justice, or any person charged with felony, or any other crime in this territory, and whenever an application shall be made to the governor for that purpose, the district attorney, or any other prosecuting officer of the territory, when required by the governor, shall forthwith investigate the grounds of such application, and report to the governor all material circumstances which may come to his knowledge, with an abstract of the evidence, and his opinion as to the expediency of the demand; but the governor may in any case appoint such agents without requiring the opinion of, or any report from the district attorney; and the accounts of the agents appointed for such purpose, shall, in all cases, be audited by the governor, and paid from the territorial treasury.

Demand by governors of other states.

SEC. 2. When a demand shall be made upon the governor of this territory by the executive of any state or territory, in any case authorized by the constitution and laws of the United States, for the delivery over of any person charged in such state or territory with treason, felony or any other crime, the district attorney, or any other prosecuting officer, when required by the governor, shall forthwith investigate the ground of such demand, and report to the governor all material facts which may come to his knowledge as to the situation and circumstances of the person so demanded, especially as to whether he is held in custody, or is under recognizance to answer for any offence against the laws of this territory, or of the United States, or by force of any civil process, and also whether such demand is made according to law, so that such person ought to be delivered up; and if the governor be satisfied that such demand is conformable to law, and ought to be complied with, he shall issue his warrant, under the seal of the territory, authorizing the agents who make such demand, either forthwith, or at such time as shall be designated by the warrant, to take and transport such person to the line of the territory, at the expense of such agents, and shall also by such warrant require the civil officers within this territory, to afford all needful assistance in the execution thereof.

Warrant of magistrate.

SEC. 3. Whenever any person shall be found within this territory, charged with any offence committed in any state or territory, and liable by the constitution and laws of the United States, to be delivered over on the demand of the executive of such state or territory, any court or magistrate authorized to issue warrants in criminal cases, may, upon complaint under oath, setting forth the offence, and such other matters as are necessary to bring the case within the provisions of law, issue a warrant to bring the person so charged before the same or some other court or magistrate within the territory, to answer such complaint, as in other cases.

SEC. 4. If upon examination of the person charged, it shall appear to the court or magistrate that there is reasonable cause to believe that the complaint is true, and that such person may be lawfully demanded of the governor, he shall, if not charged with a capital crime, be required to recognize, with sufficient securities, in a reasonable sum, to appear before such court or magistrate, at a future day, allowing a reasonable time to obtain the warrant of the executive, and to abide the order of the court or magistrate, and if such person shall not so recognize, he shall be committed to prison, and be there detained until such day, in like manner as if the offence charged had been committed within this territory; and if the person so recognizing shall fail to appear according to the condition of his recognizance, he shall be defaulted, and the like proceedings shall be had as in the case of other recognizances entered into before such court or magistrate; but if such person be charged with a capital crime, he shall be committed to prison, and there detained until the day so appointed for his appearance before the court or magistrate.

Recognizance when required.

SEC. 5. If the person so recognized or committed shall appear before the court or magistrate upon the day ordered, he shall be discharged, unless he be demanded by some person authorized by the warrant of the executive to receive him, or unless the court or magistrate shall see cause to commit him, or require of him to recognize anew for his appearance at some other day; and if, when ordered, he shall not so recognize, he shall be committed and detained as before provided; whether the person so appearing shall be recognized, committed, or discharged, any person authorized by the warrant of the executive, may at all times take him into custody, and the same shall be a discharge of the recognizance, if any, and shall not be deemed an escape.

Discharge of person recognized, &c.

SEC. 6. The complainant in such cases, shall be answerable for the actual costs and charges, and for the support in prison of any person so committed, and shall advance to the jailor one week's board at the time of commitment, and so from week to week so long as such person shall remain in jail; and if he fail to do so, the jailor may forthwith discharge such person from his custody.

Complainant
liable for costs, &c.

CHAPTER XVI.

PROCEEDINGS TO PREVENT COMMISSION OF CRIMES.

- SEC. 1. Certain officers conservators of the public peace.
2. Proceedings when complaint is made to magistrate.
3. Magistrate when to issue warrant.
4. Proceedings on examination before magistrate.
5. Privilege of defendant.
6. Recognizance, when required.
7. Defendant, when to be committed.
8. Discharge of defendant; complainant, when to pay costs.
9. In other cases, costs, how and when paid.
10. Appeal, when allowed.
11. When magistrate may require witnesses to recognize.
12. Proceedings on appeal by district court.
13. Consequence of appellant failing to prosecute appeal.
14. After commitment, defendant may be discharged on giving security.
15. Recognizance to be transmitted to district court.
16. When person may be ordered to recognize without warrant.
17. Armed persons, when required to find sureties.
18. Suit on recognizance.
19. Surety may surrender principal.

Keeping the peace.

SEC. 1. The judges of the several courts of record, in vacation as well as in open court, and all justices of the peace, shall have power to cause all laws made for the preservation of the public peace, to be kept, and in the execution of that power, may require persons to give security to keep the peace, or for their good behavior, or both, in the manner provided in this chapter.

When sureties may be required, 17 Wen. 1st: 23 do. 639.

SEC. 2. Whenever complaint shall be made to any such magistrate, that any person has threatened to commit an offence against the person or property of another, the magistrate shall examine the complainant, and any witness who may be produced on oath, and reduce such complaint to writing, and cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant.

Warrant to issue.

SEC. 3. If, upon examination, it shall appear that there is just cause to fear that such offence may be committed, the magistrate shall issue a warrant under his hand, reciting the substance of the complaint, and requiring the officer to whom it may be directed, forthwith to apprehend the person complained of, and bring him before such magistrate, or some other magistrate or court having jurisdiction of the cause.

Examination

SEC. 4. The magistrate before whom any person is brought upon charge of having made threats as aforesaid, shall, as soon as may be, examine the complainant, and the witnesses to support the prosecution, on oath, in the presence of the party charged, in relation to any matters connected with such charge, which may be deemed pertinent.

Privilege of defendant.

SEC. 5. After the testimony to support the prosecution, the witnesses for the prisoner, if he have any, shall be sworn and examined, and he may be assisted by counsel in such examination, and also in the cross-examination of the witnesses in support of the prosecution.

Recognizance when required.

SEC. 6. If, upon examination, it shall appear that there is just cause to fear that any such offence will be committed by the party complained of, he shall be required to enter into recognizance with sufficient sureties, in such sum as the magistrate shall direct, to keep the peace towards all the people of this territory, and especially towards the person requiring such security, for such term as the magistrate shall order, not exceeding six months; but he shall not be ordered to recognize for his appearance at the district court, unless he is charged with some offence for which he ought to be held to answer at said court.

SEC. 7. If the person so ordered to recognize, shall refuse or neglect to comply with such order, the magistrate shall commit him to the county jail during the period for which he was required to give security, or until he shall so recognize, stating in the warrant the cause of commitment, with the sum and time for which security was required.

When to be committed, 23 Wen. 639.

SEC. 8. If, upon examination, it shall not appear that there is just cause to fear that any such offence will be committed by the party complained of, he shall be forthwith discharged; and if the magistrate shall deem the complaint unfounded, frivolous or malicious, he shall order the complainant to pay the costs of prosecution, who shall thereupon be answerable to the magistrate and the officer for their fees, as for his own debt.

Complainant when to pay costs.

SEC. 9. When no order respecting the costs is made by the magistrate, they shall be allowed and paid in the same manner as costs before justices in criminal prosecutions; but in all cases where a person is required to give security for the peace, or for his good behavior, the magistrate may further order the costs of prosecution, or any part thereof, to be paid by such person, who shall stand committed until such costs are paid, or he is otherwise legally discharged.

Costs.

SEC. 10. Any person aggrieved by the order of any justice of the peace, requiring him to recognize as aforesaid, may, within ten days after the decision of the justice, on giving the security required, appeal to the district court, next to be holden in the same county, or that county to which said county is attached for judicial purposes.

Appeal.

SEC. 11. The magistrate, from whose order an appeal is to be taken, shall require such witnesses as he may deem necessary to support the complaint, to recognize for their appearance at the court to which appeal is made.

Witnesses when to recognize.

SEC. 12. The court before which such appeal is prosecuted, may affirm the order of the justice, or discharge the appellant, or may require the appellant to enter into a new recognizance, with sufficient sureties, in such sum and for such time as the court shall think proper, and may also make such order in relation to the costs of prosecution, as it may deem just and reasonable.

Power of appellate court

SEC. 13. If any party appealing, shall fail to prosecute his appeal, his recognizance shall remain in full force and effect, as to any breach of the condition, without an affirmation of the judgment or order of the magistrate, and shall also stand as security for any cost which shall be ordered by the court appealed to, to be paid by the appellant.

Failing to prosecute appeal.

SEC. 14. Any person committed for not finding sureties, or refusing to recognize as required by the court or magistrate, may be dis-

Discharge of party committed.

CHAP. 17. charged by any judge or justice of the peace, on giving such security as was required.

SEC. 15. Every recognizance taken in pursuance of the foregoing provisions, shall be transmitted by the magistrate to the district court for the county, on or before the first day of the next term, and shall be there filed of record by the clerk.

SEC. 16. Any person, who shall, in the presence of any magistrate mentioned in the first section of this chapter, or before any court of record, make an affray, or threaten to kill, or beat another, or to commit any violence or outrage against his person or property, and every person, who, in the presence of such court or magistrate, shall contend with hot and angry words, to the disturbance of the peace, may be ordered, without process or any other proof, to recognize for keeping the peace, and being of good behavior for a term not exceeding six months, and in case of a refusal, may be committed as before directed.

SEC. 17. If any person shall go armed with a dirk, dagger, sword, pistol, or other offensive and dangerous weapon, without reasonable cause to fear an assault, injury, or other violence to his person, or to his family or property, he may, on complaint of any other person, having reasonable cause to fear an injury, or breach of the peace, be required to find sureties for keeping the peace for a term not exceeding six months, with the right of appealing as before provided.

SEC. 18. Whenever on a suit brought on any such recognizance, the penalty thereof shall be adjudged forfeited, the court may remit such portion of the penalty on the petition of any defendant, as the circumstances of the case shall render just and reasonable.

SEC. 19. Any surety in a recognizance to keep the peace, or for good behavior, or both, shall have the same authority and right to take and surrender his principal, as if he had been bail for him in a civil case, and upon such surrender, shall be discharged and exempted from all liability for any act of the principal, subsequent to such surrender, which would be a breach of the condition of the recognizance; and the person so surrendered, may recognize anew with sufficient sureties, before any justice of the peace for the residue of the term, and thereupon shall be discharged.

CHAPTER XVII.

ARRESTS.

SEC. 1. Arrest defined.

SEC. 4. If the offence charged be a felony, the arrest may be made on any day, and at any time of the day or night; if it be a misdemeanor, the arrest shall not be made on Sunday, or at night, unless upon the direction of the magistrate indorsed upon the warrant.

SEC. 5. An arrest is made by an actual restraint of the person of the defendant, or by his submission to the custody of the officer.

SEC. 6. If any person against whom a warrant may be issued for an alleged offence committed in any county, shall, either before or after the issuing of such warrant, escape from, or be out of the county, the sheriff or other officer to whom such warrant may be directed, may pursue and apprehend the party charged, in any county in this territory, and for that purpose may command aid, and exercise the same authority as in his own county.

SEC. 7. A peace officer, or a private person may, without a warrant, arrest a person:

1. For a public offence, committed or attempted in his presence;

2. When the person arrested has committed a felony, though not in his presence;

3. When a felony has in fact been committed, and he has reasonable cause for believing that the person arrested committed it.

SEC. 8. He shall before making the arrest, inform the person to be arrested, of the cause thereof, and require him to submit, except, when he is in the actual commission of the offence, or when he is arrested on pursuit immediately after its commission.

SEC. 9. If a person arrested escape or be rescued, the person from whose custody he escaped, or was rescued, may immediately pursue and retake him, at any time, and in any place, in the territory.

Admitting to bail.

Associating of magistrates.

SEC. 1. For the apprehension of persons charged with offences, the judges of the district courts, in vacation as well as in term-time, and all justices of the peace, are authorized to issue process to carry into effect the provisions of this chapter.

SEC. 2. Upon complaint being made to any such magistrate, that a criminal offence has been committed, he shall examine on oath the complainant, and any witness provided by him, and shall reduce the complaint to writing, and shall cause the same to be subscribed by the complainant; and if it shall appear that any such offence has been committed, the court or justice shall issue a warrant reciting the substance of the accusation, and requiring the officer to whom it shall be directed, forthwith to take the person accused and bring him before the said court or justice, or before some other court or magistrate of the county, to be dealt with according to law; and in the same warrant, may require the officer to summon such witnesses as shall be therein named, to appear and give evidence on the examination.

SEC. 3. If it shall appear that an offence has been committed, and that there is probable cause to believe the prisoner guilty, and, if the offence be bailable by the magistrate, and the prisoner offer sufficient bail, or the amount of money in lieu thereof, it shall be taken and the prisoner discharged; but if no sufficient bail be offered, or the offence be not bailable by the magistrate, the prisoner shall be committed for trial.

SEC. 4. When a magistrate admits a prisoner to bail, or commits him, he shall also bind by recognizances such witnesses against the prisoner as he shall deem material, to appear and testify at the next court having cognizance of the offence, and in which the prisoner shall be held to answer.

SEC. 5. If the magistrate shall be satisfied that there is good cause to believe that any such witness will not perform the condition of his recognizance, unless other security be given, such magistrate may order the witness to enter into a recognizance, with such sureties as may be deemed necessary, for his appearance at court.

SEC. 6. When any married woman or minor is a material witness, any other person may be allowed to recognize for the appearance of such witness, or the magistrate may, in his discretion, take the recognizance of such married woman or minor, in a sum not exceeding fifty dollars, which shall be valid and binding in law, notwithstanding the disability of coverture or minority.

SEC. 7. All witnesses required to recognize, either with or without sureties, shall, if they refuse, be committed to prison by the magistrate, there to remain until they comply with such order, or be otherwise discharged according to law.

SEC. 8. Any judge of a court of record, on application of any prisoner, committed for a bailable offence, may inquire into the case, and admit such prisoner to bail; and any person, committed for not finding sufficient securities, may be admitted to bail, by either of said judges.

SEC. 9. Any magistrate to whom complaint is made, or before whom any prisoner is brought, may associate with himself, one or more magistrates of the same county; and they may together execute the powers and duties before mentioned, but no fees shall be taxed for such associates. CHAP. 18.

SEC. 10. The testimony of the witnesses examined shall be reduced to writing by the magistrate, or under his discretion, when he shall think it necessary, and shall be signed by the witnesses, if required by the magistrate. Testimony how written.

SEC. 11. All examinations and recognizances taken by any magistrate in pursuance of the provisions of this chapter, shall be certified, and returned by him to the district attorney, or the clerk of the court, before which the party charged is bound to appear, on or before the first day of the sitting thereof; and if such magistrate shall neglect or refuse to return the same, he may be compelled forthwith, by rule of court, and in case of disobedience, may be proceeded against by attachment, as for contempt. Return of examination.

SEC. 12. When any person shall be committed to prison, or shall be under recognizance to answer any charge for a misdemeanor, for which the party injured may have a remedy by a civil action, except when the offence was committed upon a sheriff or other officer of justice, or riotously, or with intent to commit a felony, if the party injured shall appear before the magistrate who made the commitment, or took the recognizance, and acknowledged in writing that he has received satisfaction for the injury, the magistrate may in his discretion, on payment of all costs which may have accrued, discharge the recognizance, or supersede the commitment by an order under his hand; and may also discharge all recognizances, and supersede the commitment of all witnesses in the case. Discharge of defendant on giving satisfaction.

SEC. 13. Every such order of the magistrate, discharging the recognizance of the party, or witness, shall be filed in the office of the clerk before the sitting of the court before which they are bound to appear; and every order superseding the commitment of the party charged, or of any witnesses, shall be delivered to the keeper of the jail in which he is confined, who shall forthwith discharge him; and every such order, if so filed and delivered, and not otherwise, shall forever bar all remedy by civil action for such injury. Order discharging recognizance when filed.

SEC. 14. When any person under recognizance in any criminal prosecution, either to appear and answer, or to prosecute an appeal or testify in any court, shall fail to perform the condition of any such recognizance, his default shall be recorded, and process shall be issued against the persons bound by the recognizance, or such of them as the prosecuting officer shall direct. Forfeiture of recognizance Proceedings, &c.

SEC. 15. When any action is brought in the name of the territory, against a principal or surety in any recognizance entered into either by a party, or a witness in any criminal prosecution, and the penalty of such recognizance shall be adjudged forfeited, the court may, on application of any party defendant, remit any part or the whole of such penalty, and may render judgment thereon for the territory, according to the circumstances of the case, and the situation of the party, and upon such terms and conditions as to such court shall seem just and reasonable. Action on recognizance.

SEC. 16. No such action brought on a recognizance as mentioned in the preceding section, shall be barred or defeated, nor shall Ib., when not to be barred or defeated.

CHAP. 19. judgment be arrested thereon by reason of any neglect or omission to note or record the default of any principal or surety, at the term when such default shall happen, nor by reason of any such defect in the form of the recognizance, if it sufficiently appear from the tenor thereof, at what court the party or witness was bound to appear, and that the court or magistrate before whom it was taken, was authorized by law to require and take such recognizance.

Examination how conducted. SEC. 17. The magistrate, while examining any witness, may in his discretion exclude from the place of examination all the other witnesses; he may also if requested, or if he can see cause, direct the witnesses for or against the prisoner to be kept separate, so that they cannot converse with each other until they shall have been examined.

Bail when not to be taken. SEC. 18. Persons charged with an offence punishable with death, shall not be admitted to bail when the proof is evident or the presumption great; but for all other offences bail may be taken in such sum as in the opinion of the magistrate will secure the appearance of the person charged with the offence, at the court where such person is to be tried.

SEC. 14. The grand jury have power, and it is their duty to inquire into all public offences committed, or triable in the county, and to present them to the court by indictment.

SEC. 15. An indictment is an accusation in writing, presented by a grand jury to a competent court, charging a person with a public offence.

SEC. 16. The foreman may administer an oath to any witness appearing before the grand jury.

SEC. 17. In the investigation of a charge for the purpose of indictment, the grand jury shall receive no other evidence than:

1. Such as is given by witnesses produced and sworn before them; or,
2. By legal documentary evidence.

SEC. 18. The grand jury shall receive none but legal evidence, and the best evidence in degree, to the exclusion of hearsay and secondary evidence.

SEC. 19. The grand jury are not bound to hear evidence for the defendant; but it is their duty to weigh all the evidence submitted to them, and when they have reason to believe that other evidence within their reach will explain away the charge, they should order such evidence to be produced, and for that purpose may require the district attorney to issue process for the witnesses.

SEC. 20. If a member of the grand jury knows, or has reason to believe, that a public offence has been committed, which is triable in the county, he shall declare the same to his fellow jurors, who shall thereupon investigate the same.

SEC. 21. The grand jury shall inquire:

1. Into the condition of every person imprisoned on a criminal charge, triable in the county, and not indicted;

Indictment
for libel.

SEC. 4. The manner of stating the fact constituting the offence, as set forth in the preceding forms, shall be sufficient in all cases where the forms given are applicable. In all other cases, forms may be used as nearly similar as the nature of the case may permit.

Above forms sufficient.

SEC. 5. The indictment shall be direct and certain as it regards:

1. The party charged;
2. The offence charged;
3. The particular circumstances of the offence charged, when they are necessary to constitute a complete offence.

Indictment
must be direct.

SEC. 6. When a defendant is indicted by a fictitious or erroneous name, and in any stage of the proceedings his true name is discovered, it may be inserted in the subsequent proceedings, referring to the fact of his being indicted by the name mentioned in the indictment.

Proceedings
when defendant is indicted by fictitious name.

SEC. 7. The indictment shall charge but one offence, and in one form only, except that where the offence may be committed by the use of different means, the indictment may allege the means in the alternative.

Indictment
must charge
but one offence.

SEC. 8. The precise time at which the offence was committed need not be stated in the indictment, but may be alleged to have been committed at any time before the finding thereof, except where the time is a material ingredient in the offence.

Time of offence
stated.

SEC. 9. When the offence involves the commission of or an attempt to commit a private injury, and is described with sufficient certainty in other respects to identify the act, an erroneous allegation as to the person injured, or intended to be injured, is not material.

Certain allocation im-material.

SEC. 10. The words used in an indictment shall be construed in their usual acceptations, in common language, except words and

Words in an indictment
how construed.

CHAP. 21. phrases defined by law, which are to be construed according to their legal meaning.

Words of statute need not be strictly construed. Indictment when sufficient.

SEC. 11. Words used in the statutes to define a public offence, need not be strictly pursued in the indictment, but other words conveying the same meaning may be used.

SEC. 12. The indictment is sufficient if it can be understood therefrom:

1. That it is entitled in a court having authority to receive it, though the name of the court is not accurately stated;

2. That it was found by a grand jury of the county in which the court was held;

3. That the defendant is named, or, if his name cannot be discovered, that he is described by a fictitious name, with the statement that he has refused to discover his real name;

4. That the offence was committed at some place within the jurisdiction of the court, except where as provided by law, the act, though done without the local jurisdiction of the county, is triable therein;

5. That the offence was committed at some time prior to the time of finding the indictment;

6. That the act or omission charged as the offence, is clearly and distinctly set forth in ordinary and concise language, without repetition, and in such a manner as to enable a person of common understanding to know what is intended;

7. That the act or omission charged as the offence, is stated with such a degree of certainty as to enable the court to pronounce judgment upon a conviction, according to the right of the case.

Defects in matters of form how regarded.

SEC. 13. No indictment shall be deemed insufficient, nor shall the trial, judgment or other proceedings thereon be affected by reason of a defect or imperfection in matter of form, which does not tend to the prejudice of the substantial rights of the defendant upon the merits.

Presumptions of law need not be stated. Judgments how pleaded.

SEC. 14. Neither presumptions of law nor matter of which judicial notice is taken, need be stated in an indictment.

SEC. 15. In pleading a judgment or other determination of, or proceeding before a court or officer of special jurisdiction, it shall not be necessary to state the facts conferring jurisdiction, but the judgment or determination may be stated to have been duly given or made. The facts constituting jurisdiction, however, shall be established on trial.

Private statute how pleaded.

SEC. 16. In pleading a private statute or a right derived therefrom, it shall be sufficient to refer to the statute by its title, and the day of its passage, and the court thereupon shall take special notice thereof.

Indictment for libel need not state extrinsic facts.

SEC. 17. An indictment for libel need not set forth any extrinsic facts for the purpose of showing the application to the party libeled, of the defamatory matter on which the indictment is founded, but it is sufficient to state generally that the same was published concerning him; and the fact that it was so published shall be established on the trial.

Misdescription in forgery when immaterial.

SEC. 18. When an instrument which is the subject of an indictment for forgery has been destroyed or withdrawn by the act or procurement of the defendant, and the fact of the destruction or withholding is alleged in the indictment and established on the trial, the misdescription of the instrument is immaterial.

CHAP. 22. What sufficient to perjury.

SEC. 19. In an indictment for perjury or subornation of perjury, it shall be sufficient to set forth the substance of the controversy or matter in respect to which the offence was committed, and in what court, or before whom the oath alleged to be false was taken, and that the court or person before whom it was taken, had authority to administer it, with proper allegations of the falsity of the matter on which the perjury is assigned; but the indictment need not set forth the pleadings, record or proceedings with which the oath is connected, nor the commission or authority of the court or person, before whom the perjury was committed.

SEC. 20. Upon an indictment against several defendants, any one or more may be convicted or acquitted.

SEC. 21. The distinction between an accessory before the fact and a principal, and between the principals in the first and second degree in cases of felony, is abrogated; and all persons concerned in the commission of a felony, whether they directly commit the act constituting the offence, or aid and abet in the commission, though not present, shall hereafter be indicted, tried and punished as principals in the case of a misdemeanor.

SEC. 22. A person may be indicted for having, with the knowledge of the commission of a public offence, taken money or property of another, or a gratuity, or reward, or an engagement or promise therefor, upon an agreement or understanding, express or implied, to compound or conceal the offence, or to abstain from a prosecution therefor, or to withhold any evidence thereof, though the person guilty of the original offence has not been indicted or tried.

Part or all defendants may be convicted. Distinction between principal and accessory before the fact abolished.

ARRAIGNMENT OF THE DEFENDANT.

SEC. 1. Defendant how arraigned.

2. Defendant must be present in cases of felony.

3. Court may direct officer to arraign defendant.

4. When defendants do not appear after giving bail, bench warrant may issue.

5. Clerk may issue such warrant.

6. Form of bench warrant in certain cases.

7. Bench warrant in case of misdemeanor.

8. In such case amount of bail to be indorsed on warrant.

9. Bench warrant how served.

10. Magistrate of another county how to proceed in admitting to bail.

11. Certificate of such magistrate on warrant.

12. Court may order defendant to be committed.

13. If defendant present, must be committed.

14. Court must inform defendant of his rights to counsel.

15. Arraignment, how made.

16. Defendant must be asked to give his true name.

17. Defendant allowed one day to answer.

18. Defendant may demur or plead to answer.

SEC. 1. When the indictment is filed, the defendant shall be arraigned thereon before the court in which it is found, if it be triable therein, or if not, before the court to which it is sent or removed.

Defendant how arraigned.

CHAP. 22.

When defendant must be present.

Court may direct officer to arraign defendant.

When bench warrant may issue.

Ib. How issued.

Ib. Form of.

SEC. 2. If the indictment be for a felony, the defendant shall be personally present; but if for a misdemeanor only, his personal appearance is unnecessary, and he may appear upon the arraignment by counsel.

SEC. 3. When his personal appearance is necessary, if he be in custody, the court may direct the officer in whose custody he is, to bring him before it to be arraigned; and the officer shall do so accordingly.

SEC. 4. If the defendant has been discharged on bail, or has deposited money instead thereof, and does not appear to be arraigned when his personal attendance is necessary, the court, in addition to the forfeiture of the undertaking of bail, or the money deposited, may direct the clerk to issue a bench warrant for his arrest.

SEC. 5. The clerk, on the application of the district attorney, may accordingly, at any time after the order, whether the court be sitting or not, issue a bench warrant into one or more counties.

SEC. 6. The bench warrant upon the indictment shall, if the offence be a felony, be substantially in the following form:

The district court for the county of ———, and Territory of Oregon:

In the name of the United States, to any sheriff (or other proper officer) in the territory of Oregon—An indictment having been found on the ——— day of ———, A. D. 18—, in the district court for the county of ———, charging C. D. with the crime of (designating it generally,) you are therefore commanded forthwith to arrest the above named C. D. and bring him before this court, (or if the venue has been changed, take him before that court, as the case may be,) to answer the indictment; or if the court have adjourned for the term, that you deliver him into custody of the jailor of the county (or city) of ———, the ——— day of ———, A. D. 18—.

By order of the court.

E. F., Clerk.

Ib.

SEC. 7. If the offence be a misdemeanor, the bench warrant shall be in a similar form, adding to the body thereof a direction to the following effect: "or if he require it, that you take him before any magistrate in that county, or in the county in which you arrest him, that he may give bail to answer the indictment."

Amount of bail to be indorsed on warrant.

Bench warrant how served.

Magistrate of another county how to proceed.

Ib. Must certify on warrant.

SEC. 8. If the offence charged be bailable, the court, upon directing the bench warrant to issue, shall fix the amount of bail, and an indorsement shall be made upon the bench warrant, and signed by the clerk to the following effect: "The defendant is to be admitted to bail in the sum of ——— dollars.

SEC. 9. The bench warrant may be served in any county in the same manner as a warrant of arrest.

SEC. 10. If the defendant be brought before a magistrate of another county for the purpose of giving bail, the magistrate shall proceed in respect thereto, in the same manner as if the defendant had been brought before him upon a warrant of arrest.

SEC. 11. On taking bail, the magistrate shall certify that fact on the warrant, and deliver the warrant and undertaking of bail to the officer having charge of the defendant; the officer shall then discharge the defendant from arrest, and without delay, deliver the warrant and undertaking to the clerk of the court at which the defendant is required to appear.

CHAP. 23.

SEC. 12. When the indictment is for a felony, and the defendant before the finding thereof, has given bail for his appearance to answer the charge, the court to which the indictment is presented or sent, or removed for trial, may order the defendant to be committed to actual custody, either without bail, or unless he give bail in the increased amount to be specified in the order.

SEC. 13. If the defendant be present when the order is made, he shall be forthwith committed accordingly; if he be not present, a bench warrant shall be issued and proceeded upon in the manner provided in this chapter.

SEC. 14. If the defendant appear without counsel, he shall be informed by the court that it is his right to have counsel before being arraigned; and he shall be asked if he desire the aid of counsel.

SEC. 15. The arraignment shall be made by the court, or by the clerk or district attorney under its direction, and shall consist in reading the indictment to the defendant, and delivering to him a copy thereof, and of the indorsement thereon, including the list of witnesses indorsed on it or appended thereto, and asking him whether he pleads guilty or not guilty to the indictment.

SEC. 16. When the defendant is arraigned, he shall be informed that if the name by which he is indicted be not his true name, he shall then declare his true name, or be proceeded against by the name in the indictment.

SEC. 17. If on the arraignment, the defendant require it, he shall be allowed until the next day, or such further time may be allowed him as the court may deem reasonable to answer the indictment.

SEC. 18. If the defendant do not require time as provided in the last section, or if he do, then on the next day, or at such further day as the court may have allowed him, he may in answer to the arraignment, either move the court to set aside the indictment, or may demur or plead thereto.

CHAPTER XXIII.

SETTING ASIDE INDICTMENT.

- SEC. 1. Indictment may be set aside on motion.
2. Consequence of neglecting to make such motion.
3. Motion when heard.
4. If denied, defendant must demur or plead.
5. If granted, defendant to be discharged, unless, &c.
6. Effect of order for re-submission.
7. If new indictment not found, court to make order of discharge.
8. Order to set aside an indictment, no bar to future action.

SEC. 1. The indictment shall be set aside by the court in which the defendant is arraigned, and upon his motion in either of the following cases:

1. When it is not found indorsed and presented according to statute;

Indictment when set aside on motion.

CHAP. 24. 2. When the names of the witnesses examined before the grand jury are not inserted at the foot of the indictment, or indorsed thereon;

3. When a person is permitted to be present during the session of the grand jury, while the charge embraced in the indictment was under consideration, except such persons as are permitted to be present by statute.

Neglecting to make motion. SEC. 2. If the motion to set aside the indictment be not made, the defendant is precluded from afterwards taking the objections mentioned in the last section.

Motion when heard. SEC. 3. The motion shall be heard at the time of the arraignment, unless for good cause the court postpone the hearing to another time.

If denied, &c. SEC. 4. If the motion be denied, the defendant shall immediately answer the indictment, either by demurring or pleading thereto.

If granted, &c. SEC. 5. If the motion be granted, the court shall order that the defendant, if in custody, be discharged therefrom, or if admitted to bail, that his bail be exonerated, or if he have deposited money instead of bail, that the money be refunded to him, unless it direct that the case be re-submitted to the same or another grand jury.

Order for re-submission. SEC. 6. If the court direct that the case be re-submitted, the defendant, if already in custody, shall so remain, unless he be admitted to bail; or if already admitted to bail, or money have been deposited instead thereof, the bail or money shall be answerable for the appearance of the defendant to answer a new indictment.

If new indictment not found; order of discharge. SEC. 7. Unless a new indictment be found before the next grand jury of the county is discharged, the court shall on the discharge of such grand jury, make the order prescribed by section five.

Order to set aside, no bar to future action. SEC. 8. An order to set aside an indictment as provided in the preceding sections, shall be no bar to a future prosecution for the same offence.

CHAPTER XXIV.

DEMURRER.

SEC. 1. Pleadings of defendant.

2. Demurrer, when filed.

3. When defendant may demur.

4. Demurrer, what to specify; must be in writing.

5. Objection on demurrer, when heard.

6. Judgment on demurrer final, and a bar to another action.

7. If case be not re-submitted, defendant discharged.

8. Proceedings if the case be re-submitted.

9. If demurrer disallowed, defendant may plead.

10. Certain objections to be taken advantage of by demurrer only.

Pleadings of defendant. SEC. 1. The only pleading on the part of the defendant shall be either a demurrer or a plea.

Demurrer and when filed. SEC. 2. Both the demurrer and the plea shall be put in open court, either at the time of the arraignment, or at such other time as may be allowed to the defendant for that purpose.

SEC. 3. The defendant may demur to the indictment, when it appears from the face thereof either:

1. That the grand jury by which it was found had no legal authority to inquire into the offence charged, by reason of its not being within the local jurisdiction of the county;

2. That it does not substantially conform to the requirements of the statute;

3. That more than one offence is charged in the indictment;

4. That the facts stated do not constitute a public offence;

5. That the indictment contains any matter which, if true, would constitute a legal justification or excuse of the offence charged, or other legal bar to the prosecution.

SEC. 4. The demurrer shall be in writing, signed either by the defendant or his counsel; it shall distinctly specify the ground of the objection to the indictment, or it shall be disregarded.

SEC. 5. Upon the demurrer being filed, the objections presented thereby shall be heard, either immediately, or at such time as the court may appoint.

SEC. 6. Upon considering the demurrer, the court shall give judgment either allowing or disallowing it, and an order to that effect shall be entered upon the minutes.

SEC. 7. If the demurrer be allowed, the judgment shall be final upon the indictment demurred to, and shall be a bar to another prosecution for the same offence, unless the court, being of the opinion that the objection on which the demurrer is allowed may be avoided in a new indictment, direct the case to be re-submitted to the same or another grand jury.

SEC. 8. If the court do not direct the case to be re-submitted, the defendant, if in custody, shall be discharged; or if admitted to bail, his bail shall be exonerated; or if he have deposited money instead of bail, the money shall be refunded to him.

SEC. 9. If the court direct that the case be submitted anew, the same proceedings shall be held thereon as are prescribed in sections six and seven of the preceding chapter.

SEC. 10. If the demurrer be disallowed, the court shall permit the defendant at his election, to plead, which he shall do forthwith, or at such time as the court may allow; if he do not plead, judgment shall be pronounced against him.

SEC. 11. When the objections mentioned in section three appear upon the face of the indictment, they can only be taken by demurrer, except that the objection to the jurisdiction of the court over the subject of the indictment, or that the facts stated do not constitute a public offence, may be taken at the trial, under the plea of not guilty and in arrest of judgment.

CHAP. 24.

When defendant may demur.

Demurrer what to specify.

Objection when heard.

Judgment how given.

When judgment on demurrer final, and a bar, &c.

If case not re-submitted.

Proceedings if re-submitted.

If demurrer be disallowed, defendant may plead.

Certain objections to be demurred to.

CHAPTER XXV.

OF PLEAS.

SEC. 1. Three kinds of plea to indictment.

2. Plea, how made.
3. Plea, how entered.
4. Plea of guilty must be put in by defendant, except in case of incorporation.
5. Plea of guilty may be withdrawn.
6. Plea of not guilty, what a denial of.
7. What may be given in evidence under a plea of not guilty.
8. When acquittal not a bar to another prosecution.
- 9 & 10. When acquittal a bar to another prosecution.
11. Not guilty to be entered when defendant refuses to plead.

Three kinds of pleas to indictment.

SEC. 1. There are three kinds of pleas to an indictment: a plea of

1. Guilty;
2. Not guilty;
3. A former judgment of conviction or acquittal of the offence charged, which may be pleaded either with or without the plea of not guilty.

Plea how made.

SEC. 2. Every plea shall be oral, and shall be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Plea how to be entered.

SEC. 3. The plea shall be entered in substantially the following form:

1. If the defendant plead guilty: "The defendant pleads that he is guilty of the offence charged in this indictment;"
2. If he plead not guilty: "The defendant pleads that he is not guilty of the offence charged in this indictment;"
3. If he plead a former conviction or acquittal: "The defendant pleads that he has already been convicted or acquitted, (as the case may be,) of the offence charged in this indictment, by the judgment of the court of —, (naming it,) rendered at —, (naming the place,) on the — day of —."

Plea of guilty
how put in.

SEC. 4. A plea of guilty can in no case be put in, except by the defendant himself in open court, unless upon an indictment against a corporation, in which case it may be put in by counsel.

Ib. May be withdrawn.

SEC. 5. The court may, at any time before judgment upon a plea of guilty, permit it to be withdrawn, and a plea of not guilty substituted.

Plea of not guilty a denial.

SEC. 6. The plea of not guilty is a denial of every material allegation in the indictment.

Evidence
under plea
of not guilty.

SEC. 7. All matters of fact tending to establish a defence other than that specified in the third subdivision of section three, may be given in evidence, under the plea of not guilty.

When acquittal not a bar to another prosecution.

SEC. 8. If the defendant were formerly acquitted on the ground of a variance between the indictment and the proof, or the indictment were dismissed upon an objection to its form or substance without a judgment of acquittal, it shall not be an acquittal of the same offence.

Ib. When a bar, &c.

SEC. 9. When, however, he was acquitted on the merits, he shall be deemed acquitted of the same offence, notwithstanding a defect in the form or substance of the indictment on which he was acquitted.

SEC. 10. When the defendant shall have been convicted or acquitted upon an indictment for an offence consisting of different degrees, the conviction or acquittal is a bar to another indictment for the offence charged in the former, or for any inferior degree of that offence, or for an attempt to commit the same, or for an offence necessarily included therein, of which he might have been convicted under that indictment.

CHAP. 26.
Acquittal
when a bar.

SEC. 11. If the defendant refuse to answer the indictment by demurrer or plea, a plea of not guilty shall be entered.

If defendant refuses to plead, &c.

CHAPTER XXVI.

OF THE CHANGE OF VENUE IN CRIMINAL CASES.

SEC. 1. Criminal cases where tried.

2. Proceedings when venue is changed to another county.
3. When venue is changed, defendant must recognize.
4. When venue is changed, witness must recognize.
5. District attorney may apply for change of venue.

SEC. 1. All criminal cases shall be tried in the county where the offence was committed, except where otherwise provided by law, unless it shall appear to the satisfaction of the court, by affidavit, that a fair and impartial trial cannot be had in such county, in which case the court before whom the cause is pending, if the offence charged in the indictment be punishable with death or imprisonment in the penitentiary, may direct the person accused to be tried in some adjoining county, where a fair and impartial trial can be held; but the party accused shall be entitled to a change of venue but once, and no more.

Criminal cases where tried.

SEC. 2. When the venue is changed to an adjoining county, in a criminal case, the trial shall be conducted in all respects as if the indictment had been found in the county to which the venue is changed; and the costs accruing from a change of venue shall be paid by the county in which the offence was committed.

Proceedings
when venue
changed.

SEC. 3. When the court has ordered a change of venue, they shall require the accused, if the offence be bailable, to enter into recognizance with good and sufficient sureties, to be approved by the court or judge, in such sum as the court or judge may direct, conditioned for his appearance in the court to which the venue is changed, at the first day of the next term thereof, and abide the order of such court, and in default of such recognizance, a warrant shall be issued, directed to the sheriff, commanding him safely to convey the prisoner to the jail of the county where he or she is to be tried, there to be safely kept by the jailor thereof until discharged by due course of law.

Ib. Defendant must recognize to appear.

SEC. 4. When a change of venue is allowed, the court shall recognize the witnesses on the part of the territory, to appear before the court in which the prisoner is to be tried.

Ib. Witen-
esses to recognize.

SEC. 5. The district attorney on behalf of the territory may also apply for a change of venue, and the court being satisfied that it will promote the ends of justice, may award a change of venue upon

District attorney may apply for change of venue.

CHAP. 27, 28 the same terms, and to the same extent that are provided in this chapter, and the proceedings on such change of venue, shall be in all respects as above provided.

CHAPTER XXVII.

ISSUES.

- SEC. 1. Issues of fact defined.
2. Issues of fact how tried.
3. When defendant must be present on trial.

Issues of fact defined.

SEC. 1. An issue of fact arises:

1. Upon a plea of not guilty; or
2. Upon a plea of a former conviction or acquittal of the same offence.

How tried.

SEC. 2. An issue of fact shall be tried by a jury of the county in which the indictment was found, unless the action be removed by order of the court, as provided in this chapter.

When defendant must be present.

SEC. 3. If the indictment be for a misdemeanor, trial may be had in the absence of the defendant, if he appear by counsel; but if for a felony, he shall be personally present.

CHAPTER XXVIII.

CRIMINAL CALENDAR.

- SEC. 1. Clerk to prepare calendar.
2. Issues on calendar how disposed of.
3. Clerk to keep register: what to contain.
4. Register to be submitted to court at commencement of term.

Clerk to prepare calendar.

SEC. 1. The clerk shall prepare a calendar of the indictments pending to be tried at the term, enumerating them according to the date of the filing of the indictments, and specifying opposite to the title of each action whether it be for a felony or a misdemeanor, and whether the defendant be in custody or on bail; and shall in like manner enter therein all indictments found during the term, and on which issues of fact are joined.

Issues on calendar, how disposed of.

SEC. 3. The issues on the calendar shall be disposed of in the following order, unless, upon the application of either party, for good cause, the court direct an indictment to be tried out of its order:

1. Indictments for felony, when the defendant is in custody;
2. Indictments for misdemeanors, when the defendant is in custody;
3. Indictments for felony, when the defendant is on bail;
4. Indictments for misdemeanors, when the defendant is on bail;

Clerk to keep register.

SEC. 3. The clerk shall keep a register of all the criminal actions in the court, in which he shall enter:

What to contain.

1. All cases returned to the court by a magistrate;
2. All indictments found in the court, or sent, or removed thereto for trial, with the time of finding the indictments, or when they were sent or removed; and

3. The time of arraignment of the demurrer or plea, and of the trial, conviction, or acquittal of the defendant, together with a brief note of all the other proceedings in the action.

SEC. 4. The register shall be submitted to the court at its opening at every term.

Id. When to be submitted to court.

CHAPTER XXIX.

OF POSTPONEMENT OF TRIAL.

- SEC. 1. When cause may be postponed; affidavit must be filed.
2. When defendant discharged, unless cause be shown for postponement.
3. Order of discharge not to bar another prosecution.

SEC. 1. When an indictment is called for trial, or at any time previous thereto, the court may, upon sufficient cause shown by the affidavit of the defendant, or the statement of the district attorney, direct the trial to be postponed to another day in the same term, or to another term; all affidavits read upon the application, shall at the same time be filed with the clerk.

When cause may be postponed.

Affidavits must be filed.

SEC. 2. If, when the indictment is called for trial, the defendant appear and be ready for trial, and the district attorney be not ready, the court may order the indictment to be discharged, unless, being of the opinion that the public interests require the indictment to be retained for trial, it direct it to be so retained.

When defendant discharged, unless, &c.

SEC. 3. If the court order the indictment to be discharged, the order shall not be a bar to another prosecution for the same offence, unless the court so direct; if the court so direct, judgment of acquittal shall be entered.

Order not a bar to another prosecution, unless, &c.

CHAPTER XXX.

OF CHALLENGING JURORS.

- SEC. 1. Trial juries, how formed.
2. Challenge defined.
3. Defendants must join in challenge.
4. Challenge to panel defined.
5. Challenge to panel, on what founded.
6. Challenge to panel, when and how taken.
7. An adverse party may except to challenge.
8. On such challenge, court how and when to proceed.
9. Denial of challenge, how made, and trial thereof.
10. Who may be examined on trial of challenge.
11. If challenge allowed, jury to be dismissed.
12. Defendant to be informed of right to challenge individual juror.
13. Different kinds of challenge to juror.
14. Challenge, when to be taken.
15. Peremptory challenge defined.
16. Number defendant entitled to.
17. Challenge for cause defined.
18. General causes of challenge.
19. Particular causes of challenge.

- CHAP. 20. SEC. 20. Grounds of challenge for implied bias.
21. Grounds of challenge for actual bias.
  22. Exemption, not a ground of challenge.
  23. Causes of challenge, how stated.
  24. Exception to challenge, and denial thereof.
  25. Challenge, how tried if denied.
  26. Juror challenged, may be examined.
  27. Rules of evidence on trial of challenge.
  28. Juror, when excluded.
  29. Challenge to be first by defendant, then by territory.
  30. Order of challenge.
  31. When peremptory challenge may be taken.
  32. Form of oath to be administered to jurors.
  33. Jurors may affirm.
  34. Court may order a view by the jury.
  35. Proceedings when defendant has been in part acquitted.
  36. When defendant, charged with assault, with intent to commit felony, may be convicted of assault.
  37. Verdict in case of insanity.
  38. Defendant, when not liable to costs.

Trial juries how formed. SEC. 1. Trial juries for criminal actions, shall be formed in the same manner as trial juries for civil actions.

Challenge defined. SEC. 2. A challenge is an objection made to the trial jury, and is of two kinds;

1. To the panel;
2. To an individual juror.

Defendants must join challenge. SEC. 3. When several defendants are tried together, they cannot sever the challenges, but shall join therein.

Challenge to panel. SEC. 4. A challenge to the panel is an objection made to all the petit jurors returned, and may be taken by either party.

Ib. On what founded. SEC. 5. A challenge to the panel can be founded only on a material departure from the forms prescribed by law, in respect to the drawing and return of the jury.

How taken. SEC. 6. A challenge to the panel shall be taken before a jury is sworn, and shall be in writing, specifying plainly and distinctly the facts constituting the ground of challenge.

When adverse party may except. SEC. 7. If the sufficiency of the facts alleged as a ground of challenge be denied, the adverse party may except to the challenge; the exception need not be in writing, but shall be entered upon the minutes of the court; and thereupon the court shall proceed to try the sufficiency of the challenge, assuming the facts alleged therein to be true.

Court how then to proceed. SEC. 8. If on the exception, the court deem the challenge sufficient, it may, if justice require it, permit the party excepting to withdraw his exception, and to deny the facts alleged in the challenge; if the exception be allowed, the court may in like manner permit an amendment of the challenge.

Denial and trial of challenge. SEC. 9. If the challenge be denied, the denial may in like manner be oral, and shall be entered upon the minutes of the court, and the court shall proceed to try the question of fact.

Who examined on trial of challenge. SEC. 10. Upon the trial of the challenge, the officer, whether judicial or ministerial, whose irregularity is complained of, as well as any other person, may be examined to prove or disprove the facts alleged as the ground of the challenge.

If challenge allowed, jury dismissed. SEC. 11. If, either upon an exception to the challenge, or a denial of the facts, the challenge be allowed, the court shall discharge the jury so far as the trial of the indictment in question is concerned, and no other jury for the trial thereof can be summoned for the same term; if it be disallowed, the court shall direct the jury to be empannelled.

SEC. 12. Before a juror is called, the defendant shall be informed by the court, or under its direction, that if he intend to challenge an individual juror, he shall do so when the juror appears, and before he is sworn.

SEC. 13. A challenge to an individual juror is either:

1. Peremptory; or,
2. For cause.

SEC. 14. It shall be taken when the juror appears, and before he is sworn; but the court may, for good cause, permit it to be taken after the juror is sworn, and before the jury is completed.

SEC. 15. A peremptory challenge is an objection to a juror for which no reason need be given, but upon which the court shall exclude him.

SEC. 16. If the offence charged be punishable with death, or imprisonment in the penitentiary for life, the defendant shall be entitled to twenty peremptory challenges; on a trial for any other offence, he shall be entitled to five peremptory challenges, and the prosecution shall be entitled to ten peremptory challenges, in cases where the punishment is death or imprisonment in the penitentiary for life, and three in all other cases.

SEC. 17. A challenge for cause may be taken either by the territory or the defendant; it is an objection to a particular juror, and shall be either:

1. General, that the juror is disqualified from serving in any case; or
2. Particular, that he is disqualified from serving in the case on trial.

SEC. 18. General causes of challenge are;

1. A conviction for a felony;
2. A want of any of the qualifications prescribed by the laws to render a person a competent juror;
3. Unsoundness of mind, or such defect in the faculties of the mind or organs of the body, as renders him incapable of performing the duties of a juror.

SEC. 19. Particular causes of challenge are of two kinds:

1. For such a bias as, when the existence of the facts is ascertained in judgment of law, disqualifies the juror, and which is known in this statute as implied bias;
2. For the existence of a state of mind on the part of a juror in reference to the case, or to either party, which satisfies the trier, in the exercise of a sound discretion, that he cannot try the issue impartially and without prejudice to the substantial rights of the party challenging, and which is known in this statute as actual bias.

SEC. 20. A challenge for implied bias may be taken for all or any of the following causes and no other:

1. Consanguinity or affinity within the fourth degree to the person alleged to be injured by the offence charged, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or to the defendant;
2. Standing in relation of guardian and ward, attorney and client,

Defendant to be told of his right to challenge jurors.

Kinds of challenge.

Peremptory challenge.

Ib. Number defendant entitled to.

Challenge for cause.

Causes of challenge.

Particular causes.

Grounds of challenge for implied bias.

CHAP. 30. master and servant, or landlord and tenant, or being a member of the family of the defendant, or of the person alleged to be injured by the offence charged, or on whose complaint the prosecution was instituted, or in his employment on wages;

3. Being a party adverse to the defendant in a civil action, or having complained against, or been accused by him in a criminal prosecution;

4. Having served on the grand jury which found the indictment, or on a coroner's jury which inquired into the death of a person whose death is the subject of the indictment;

5. Having served on a trial jury, which has tried another person for the offence charged in the indictment;

6. Having been one of a jury formerly sworn to try the same indictment, and whose verdict was set aside, or which was discharged without a verdict, after the cause was submitted to it;

7. Having served as a juror in a civil action brought against the defendant, for the act charged as an offence;

8. If the offence charged be punishable with death, the entertaining of such conscientious opinions as would preclude his finding the defendant guilty, in which case he shall not be permitted to serve as a juror.

1b. For actual bias.

SEC. 21. A challenge for actual bias may be taken for the cause mentioned in the second subdivision of section nineteen and for no other cause.

Exemption not a ground for challenge

SEC. 22. An exemption from service on a jury shall not be cause of challenge, but the privilege of the person exempted.

Causes of challenge how stated.

SEC. 23. In a challenge for implied bias, one or more of the causes stated in section twenty shall be alleged; in a challenge for actual bias, the cause stated in the second subdivision of section nineteen shall be alleged, in either case the challenge may be oral, but shall be entered upon the minutes of the court.

Exception to challenge and denial thereof.

SEC. 24. The adverse party may accept to the challenge in the same manner as to a challenge to a panel, and the same proceedings shall be had thereon, except that if the exception be allowed, the juror shall be excluded; the adverse party may also orally deny the facts alleged as the ground of challenge.

How tried if denied.

SEC. 25. If the facts be denied, the challenge shall be tried by the court, whether it be for implied or actual bias.

Juror challenged may be examined

SEC. 26. Upon the trial of a challenge to an individual juror, the juror challenged may be examined as a witness to prove or disprove the challenge, and shall be bound to answer every question pertinent to the inquiry therein.

Rules of evidence.

SEC. 27. Other witnesses may also be examined on either side; and the rules of evidence applicable to the trial of other issues, shall govern the admission or exclusion of testimony on the trial of the challenge.

Juror when excluded.

SEC. 28. The court shall determine the law and fact, and shall either allow or disallow the challenge, and direct an entry accordingly upon the minutes; if the challenge be allowed, the juror shall be excluded.

Challenge, first by defendant.

SEC. 29. All challenges to an individual juror, except peremptory, shall be taken first by the defendant, and then by the territory, and each party shall exhaust all his challenges to each juror as he is called, before the other begins. CHAP. 30.

SEC. 30. The challenges of either party need not all be taken at once; but they may be taken separately in the following order, including in each challenge all the causes of challenge belonging to the same class: Order of challenges.

1. To the panel;
2. To an individual juror for a general disqualification;
3. To an individual juror for implied bias;
4. To an individual juror for actual bias.

SEC. 31. If all the challenges on both sides be disallowed, either party may still take a peremptory challenge, unless the peremptory challenges be exhausted. Peremptory, when may be taken.

SEC. 32. The following oath shall be administered to all jurors for the trial of all criminal cases not capital: "You shall well and truly try the issue between the Territory of Oregon and the defendant, (or defendants, as the case may be,) according to the evidence: so help you God." In capital cases, the following oath shall be administered to the jurors: "You shall well and truly try, and true deliverance make between the Territory of Oregon and the prisoner at the bar, whom you shall have in charge, according to evidence: so help you God." Form of oath

SEC. 33. Any juror who is conscientiously scrupulous of taking either of the oaths above prescribed, shall be allowed to make affirmation, substituting the words, "This you do under the pains and penalties of perjury;" instead of the words, "So help you God." Jurors may affirm.

SEC. 34. The court may order a view by any jury empanelled to try a criminal case. Court may order a view.

SEC. 35. Whenever any person indicted for a felony, shall, on trial, be acquitted by verdict, of part of the offence charged in the indictment, and convicted of the residue thereof, such verdict may be received and recorded by the court, and thereupon the person charged shall be adjudged guilty of the offence, if any, which shall appear to the court to be substantially charged by the residue of such indictment, and shall be sentenced and punished accordingly. When defendant is in part acquitted.

SEC. 36. In all cases of indictment in the district court for assault with intent to commit any felony, it may be lawful for the jury, in case they do not find the felonious intent charged, to convict of the assault, and the court shall have power to sentence the person so convicted, to be punished by imprisonment in the jail of the county for a term not exceeding one year, or by fine not exceeding five hundred dollars. When defendant, charged with assault with intent to commit felony, may be convicted of assault.

SEC. 37. When any person indicted for an offence, shall, on trial, be acquitted by the jury by reason of insanity, the jury, in giving their verdict of not guilty, shall state that it was given for such cause; and thereupon, if the discharge or going at large of such insane person shall be considered by the court manifestly dangerous to the peace and safety of the community, the court may order him to be committed to prison, or may give him into the care of his friends, if they shall give bonds with surety to the satisfaction of the court, conditioned that he shall be well and securely kept, otherwise he shall be discharged. Verdict in case of insanity.

CHAP. 81. SEC. 38. No prisoner or person under recognizance, who shall be acquitted by verdict, or discharged because no indictment has been found against him, or for want of prosecution, shall be liable for any cost or fees of officers, or for any charge for subsistence while he was in custody.

Defendant
when not liable for costs.

CHAPTER XXXI.

APPEALS FROM JUSTICES OF THE PEACE.

- SEC. 1. Appeal from conviction of justice.
 2. Copy of conviction to be filed.
 3. Costs on appeal.
 4. Recognizance of appellant when forfeited.
 5. Proceedings on suit, brought on recognizance.
 6. New trial of indictment when granted.
 7. Exception to judgment, or decision of district court by defendant.
 8. Questions of law that may be prosecuted to supreme court.
 9. When in such cases defendant may recognize to appeal.
 10. Proceedings if defendant does not recognize.

Appeal from conviction of justice.

SEC. 1. Every person convicted before a justice of the peace of any offence, may appeal from the sentence to the district court, then next to be held in the same county, and such appellant shall be committed to abide the sentence of said justice, until he shall recognize to the territory in such reasonable sum, with such sureties as said justice shall require, with condition to appear at the court appealed to, and there to prosecute his appeal, and to abide the sentence of the court thereon, and in the mean time to keep the peace and be of good behavior.

Copy of conviction, &c.,
to be filed.

SEC. 2. The justice on such appeal shall make a copy of the conviction and other proceedings in the case, and transmit the same, together with the recognizance, if any shall be taken, to the clerk of the court appealed to; and the fees of the justice therefor shall be paid out of the county treasury, in like manner as other costs in criminal prosecutions are paid.

Costs on appeal.

SEC. 3. The appellant shall not be required to advance any fees in claiming his appeal, nor in prosecuting the same; but if convicted in the district court, or if sentenced for failing to prosecute his appeal, he may be required, as a part of the sentence, to pay the whole or any part of the costs of prosecution.

Recognizan-
ces of appellant, when forfeited.

SEC. 4. If the appellant shall fail to enter and prosecute his appeal, he shall be defaulted on his recognizance, if any was taken, and the district court may award sentence against him for the offence whereof he was convicted, in like manner as if he had been convicted thereof in that court; and if he be not then in custody, process may be issued to bring him into court to receive sentence.

Proceedings
on suit brought on recognizance

SEC. 5. Whenever, upon suit brought upon any recognizance to prosecute an appeal, the penalty thereof shall be adjudged to be forfeited, or when, by leave of the court, such penalty shall have been paid to the county treasurer or to the clerk of the district court, without a suit, or before judgment shall be given in a manner by law provided, if by law any forfeiture shall accrue to any person by reason of the offence of which the appellant was convicted, the court may award to him such sum as he may be entitled to out of such forfeiture. CHAP. 81.

SEC. 6. The district court may, at the term in which the trial of any indictment may be had, or within one year thereafter, or the supreme court within one year thereafter, on the petition or motion in writing of the defendant, grant a new trial for any cause for which by law a new trial may be granted, or when it shall appear to the court that justice has not been done, and on such terms or conditions as the court may direct. New trial, when granted.

SEC. 7. Any person who shall be convicted of an offence before the district court, being aggrieved by any opinion, direction, or judgment of the court, in any matter of law, may allege exceptions to such opinion, direction or judgment, which exceptions being reduced to writing in a summary mode, and presented to the court at any time before the end of the term, and found conformable to the truth of the case, shall be allowed and signed by the judge, and thereupon all further proceedings in that court shall be stayed, unless it shall clearly appear to the judge that such exceptions are frivolous, immaterial, or intended only for delay; and in that case judgment may be entered, and sentence awarded in such manner as the judge may deem reasonable, notwithstanding the allowance of such exceptions. Exceptions to judgment or decision of district court.

SEC. 8. If, upon the trial of any person who shall be convicted in said district court, any question of law shall arise which, in the opinion of the judge, shall be so important or so doubtful as to require the decision of the supreme court, he shall, if the defendant desire it, or consent thereto, report the case so far as may be necessary to present the question of law arising therein, and thereupon all proceedings in that court shall be stayed. Questions of law that may be prosecuted to supreme court.

SEC. 9. Any person being accused of an offence not punishable with death, or imprisonment in the penitentiary for a term not exceeding three years, who shall file exceptions, or for whose benefit a report shall be made by the judge, and proceedings stayed, as is provided in the two preceding sections, may recognize to the territory in such sum as the judge may order, with sufficient sureties for his personal appearance at the supreme court of the next term thereof, and to enter and prosecute his exceptions with effect, and abide the sentence thereon, and in the mean time keep the peace and be of good behavior; and the judge may, in his discretion, allow any person so to recognize, charged with an offence not punishable with death. When in such case defendant may recognize to appear.

SEC. 10. If any person so filing exceptions, or desiring a report to be made by the judge, shall not so recognize, he shall be committed to prison to await the decision of the supreme court; and in that case, the clerk of the court in which the conviction was had shall file a certified copy of the record and proceedings in the case, in the supreme court, and the court shall have cognizance thereof, and consider and decide the questions of law, and shall render judgment, and award such sentence, or make such order thereon as law and justice shall require; and if a new trial be ordered, the cause shall be remanded to the said district court for such new trial; but the proceedings here prescribed shall not deprive any party of his writ of error for an error or defect appearing of record. When in such case defendant to be committed. Filing copy of record. Judgment of supreme court.

CHAPTER XXXII.

WRITS OF ERROR.

- SEC. 1. Writs of error on conviction for capital offences, how allowed.
 2. Writs of error in other cases are writs of right; when to stay proceedings.
 3. Application how made.
 4. Return to writ of error, by whom made, what to contain.
 5. Custody of the defendant, on request to be taken before judge of supreme court to give bail.
 6. Admitting to bail; recognizance how filed.
 7. Judgment of supreme court on affirmance or reversal.
 8. If court be equally divided, cause to stand continued.

Writs of error in capital cases. 3 Comst. 9.

SEC. 1. In all cases of final judgment rendered upon an indictment, a writ of error to the supreme court may be allowed to the defendant. In capital cases this shall not be permitted, except upon the allowance of a judge of the supreme court, and after sufficient notice to the district attorney of the time and place of making the application.

In other cases writs of right. 2 Barb. 450.

When to stay proceedings.

SEC. 2. In all other than capital cases, writs of error shall issue as a matter of course, upon a mere application to the clerk of the supreme court, in term or vacation; but the writ shall not operate as a stay of proceedings, unless allowed in the manner provided in the preceding section.

Application how made.

SEC. 3. Applications for such allowance shall in all cases be made upon a transcript of the indictment and bill of exceptions, or other record, upon which error is alleged under the seal of the court where the indictment was tried.

Return of writ.

SEC. 4. Upon filing the writ of error and the allowance of the judge, (if such allowance has been made,) with the clerk of the court where the indictment was tried, he shall forthwith make returns thereto, containing a like transcript as is required in the last preceding section.

Custody of defendant.

SEC. 5. If a stay of proceedings be allowed, the sheriff, upon being served with the district clerk's certificate thereof, shall cease all further proceedings in execution of the sentence, but shall retain the defendant in custody, and at his request take him before one of the judges of the supreme court, for the purpose of giving bail if the offence charged be bailable.

Admitting to bail.

SEC. 6. Such judge may admit the defendant to bail by recognizance, with sufficient surety; such recognizance shall be filed with the clerk of the supreme court.

Judgment. 3 Denio 91; 2 Barb. 453.

SEC. 7. If the judgment below be affirmed, the sentence there pronounced shall be executed accordingly. If it be reversed, the supreme court may grant a new trial, or discharge the defendant altogether. In either case, the certificate of the clerk of the supreme court, under the seal of said court, shall be sufficient authority for the court below and its officers to act in the premises.

If court be equally divided.

SEC. 8. Whenever the supreme court shall be equally divided in opinion on hearing a writ of error, the cause shall stand continued until all the judges are on the bench.

CHAPTER XXXIII.

JUDGMENT IN CRIMINAL CASES, AND THE EXECUTION THEREOF.

- SEC. 1. Power of court to require surety of peace, &c., from convicts.
 2. Proceedings in case of breach of such recognizance.
 3. When judgment against prosecutor for costs; county to pay costs in other cases.
 4. When clerk shall deliver transcript of conviction to sheriff.
 5. In case of punishment in territorial prison, sentence how made.
 6. Sentence, when no jail in county.
 7. Death warrant, how signed and attested: what to contain.
 8. Punishment of death, how and by whom inflicted.
 9. Sheriff's warrant, &c., where to be filed, clerk to subjoin abstract, &c.

SEC. 1. Every court before whom any person shall be convicted upon an indictment for any offence not punishable with death, or by imprisonment in the penitentiary, or county jail, may in addition to the punishment prescribed by law, require such person to recognize with sufficient sureties in a reasonable sum to keep the peace, or to be of good behavior, or both, for any term not exceeding two years, and to stand committed until he shall so recognize.

SEC. 2. In case of the breach of the conditions of any such recognizance, the same proceedings shall be had, that are by law prescribed in relation to recognizances to keep the peace.

SEC. 3. In all criminal cases, other than for a felony, if the defendant be acquitted, and the court shall deem the prosecution to have been unfounded, frivolous or malicious, it shall enter judgment against the prosecutor for the costs of prosecution and the necessary costs for the defence; and execution shall issue therefor. In all other cases of acquittal the county shall pay such costs, to be taxed by the court under the supervision of the prosecuting attorney.

SEC. 4. Whenever any person convicted of any offence shall be sentenced to pay a fine or costs, or to be imprisoned in the penitentiary or county jail, the clerk of the court shall, as soon as may be, make out and deliver to the sheriff of the county, or his deputy, a transcript from the minutes of the court of such conviction and sentence, duly certified by such clerk, which shall be sufficient authority for such sheriff to execute such sentence; and he shall execute the same accordingly.

SEC. 5. In every case in which punishment in the penitentiary is awarded against any convict, the form of the sentence shall be, that he be punished by confinement at hard labor; and he may also be sentenced to solitary imprisonment for such term as the court shall direct, not exceeding twenty days at one time; and in the execution of such punishment, the solitary imprisonment shall precede the punishment by hard labor, unless the court shall otherwise order.

SEC. 6. Whenever it shall appear to the court at the time of passing sentence upon any convict, who is to be punished by confinement in the penitentiary or county jail, that there is no jail in the county in which the offence was committed, suitable for the confinement of such convict, the court may order the sentence to be executed in any county in this territory in which there may be

Surety of peace by convicts.

Proceedings in case of breach of recognizance.

Judgment against prosecutor for costs.

By. When by county.

Clerk to deliver transcript of conviction to sheriff.

Punishment in territorial prison; sentence how made.

Sentence, when no jail in the county.
